Award Categories

Award nominations will be grouped into six categories with a winner and two highly commended selected from each category listed below. The information below will help you to choose the right category for the individual / group you are nominating.

Award	Criteria
Young Volunteer of the Year Award	This award is for individuals aged 18 or under who have made a positive impact on their community through volunteering. Perhaps they've been involved in a volunteering project by taking a leadership role or by expanding / developing the project. Whatever they've been involved in; this award recognises their passion, motivation and commitment.
Volunteer of the Year Award	This award is for individuals aged 19 or over who have made a positive impact on their community through volunteering. Perhaps they've been involved in a volunteering project by taking a leadership role or by expanding / developing the project. Whatever they've been involved in; this award recognises their passion, motivation and commitment.
Volunteer Group of the Year Award	This award is for a group or organisation that has demonstrated an outstanding volunteering contribution in Central Bedfordshire. Maybe they've contributed leadership, skills and/or time for the good of the community, are consistently dedicated, and have a direct positive impact on others.
Outstanding Contribution Award	Many people give unselfishly of their time and effort without realising that they are volunteering. Too often these people go without any recognition of the difference they have made to people's lives. This award is for an individual that has made a difference to you or someone you know, and has had a very definite, positive impact by going the extra mile.
Lifetime Achievement Award	This award is for an individual who is known for their exceptional contributions to volunteering over a significant number of years. Maybe they've contributed leadership, skills and/or time for the good of the community, are consistently dedicated, and have a direct positive impact on others.
Fundraiser of the Year Award	This award is for an individual, group or organisation that has demonstrated an outstanding volunteer contribution to fundraising in Central Bedfordshire.
